CREEKLANDS METROGAINE AND CYCLOGAINE – MELBOURNE

6hr Metrogaine 10:00am Start

5hr Cyclogaine 10:30am Start

SUNDAY 15th MARCH 2015

The Creeklands Metrogaine and Cyclogaine to be held in March will start from the area of Melbourne Girls College (on the Boulevard) and will be held in the area bounded by Gardiners Creek, the Yarra River and the Outer Circle Rail Trail.

Participants in the cyclogaine will travel the length of these historic trails and creeks; visiting locations that are of historical interest and others close to important facilities - like toilets, bakeries and coffee shops. All of these essential services will be shown on your map. Metrogaine (pedestrian) participants will use many of the same tracks to visit closer, scenic locations and have checkpoints spaced - at reasonable distances - along the trails and in safe/quiet residential streets nearby.

A little historical information about the area may be of interest....

In 1836 John Gardiner arrived in the area near the junction of Kooyongkoot Creek and the Yarra River and led the establishment of the first white settlement (Kooyongkoot means "haunt of the waterfowl"). Kooyongkoot Creek was renamed in honour of John Gardiner. The first survey plan or maps for the County of Bourke - the area of Hawthorn and Camberwell north of Gardiners Creek - were drawn up in the mid 1800's with the early sub-division of crown allotments beginning in the 1850's.

The linear parkland along Gardiners Creek has now been developed as a shared cycle and pedestrian path and links to other paths along the Gardiners Creek and Scotchman Creek valleys. Those of you that take a moment to admire the ponds along Gardiner's Creek will see the descendants of the original waterfowl that were once so prolific in this area.

Most of those in the cyclogaine will travel along the Outer

Circle shared path - visiting many spots with historical significance along the way. The Outer Circle Railway Line allowed trains travelling from Gippsland to avoid privately owned tracks between Oakleigh and the city - by turning North after Oakleigh and travelling over a long trestle bridge across the Gardiner's Creek Valley (now Malvern Golf Course) and joining up with the Alamein Line. While passengers did travel on this line, its main purpose was to allow wood and coal to be brought from Gippsland to Melbourne's homes and factories.

Sadly, patronage fell and Melbourne industries and homes gradually switched over to electricity and gas thereby reducing the load on freight services. Passenger services ran until the late 20's and freight continued until late 1943 after which the Southern section of the line and the trestle bridge were dismantled.

In 1991, 100 years after the Outer Circle Rail Line first opened, sections of the trail re-opened as a shared used path for cyclists and pedestrians; hence the Anniversary Outer Circle Trail name. By 2006 a fully sealed path was completed from Kew to East Malvern Station creating a 13km off road cycle and pedestrian path joined to major off road paths at each end.

Our event in March offers you the opportunity to ride South from the start location, travel East along Gardiner's Creek, North up the Outer Circle Rail Path and then pick up the Yarra Trail and Boulevard to bring you home. Those of you with more stamina, may have the time to visit other control sites on the paths that intersect with this roughly circular course.

Gardiner's Creek, Malvern – now a golf course

President's Piece

Tom Lothian VRA President

Welcome to 2015 everyone. You may find this surprising coming from me but we have an excellent calendar of events coming up. We will kick off with a metro-cycle based out of Gardiner's Creek in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne. This will be an excellent event with a complex network of trails and parks. We have a great spread of events across the state throughout the rest of the year including a May 12 hour in Gippsland. The year will finish with a 2x6 event out of Daylesford. The event will be a mixed foot and mountain bike event. Competitors will have the ability to enter on both days to complete both disciplines.

As always, we are looking for volunteers for all our events. While we have made progress in recent years in broadening our volunteer base there is still much to do. If you haven't volunteered before it would be great if you could put your hand up to be a general helper. If you have been around the sport for a while it would be great if you consider stepping into a leadership role in event management or even a position on the committee.

The VRA has long been fortunate to benefit from the dedication of a relatively small number of people in major roles. Event management roles are generally the catering manager or admin manager. With the effort that the committee has put in to simplifying systems these roles have become much easier and new comers to these roles will be given plenty of support from old hands. We also have a couple of folks keen to step down from the VRA committee this year. If you are interested in helping guide the direction of our great sport then please have a chat with a committee member (look out for the all too fleuro orange hats) or send me an email.

While I have harped on about responsibility and leadership I would suggest that the main reason to get more involved is because it is great fun. I have never worked in any organisation with less politics and a better sense of collaboration than the VRA. Our meetings are short, fun, effective and we always emphasise a good spread of the workload. So happy 2015 everyone. The VRA has plenty of great events to offer, we hope that you get as involved as you can.

VRA President

ROGAINE TRAINING DAY - SATURDAY 2nd MAY 2015

Would you like to learn rogaining basics?

What about polishing the skills you already have?

Come to the VRA training day and get tuition from the experts!

Date: Saturday 2nd May, Time: 10:00 am - 3:00 pm (meet at 9:45 am)

Place: Belgrave/Lysterfield area. Melway Maps 83 and 84

What to bring: Day pack, lunch, snacks, water and a compass if you have one. Come dressed appropriately for the weather and wear sturdy footwear. Loan compasses available if needed.

Program: We will practise map reading and pace counting before going out to find controls. Reading contour lines, use of a compass and tips for travelling through the bush will all be covered.

Online Entry

Enter online will be available early in April. Training day events can be entered as individuals as we team you up with a trainer on the day. Enter as a team to make your payment in one Bpay transaction. Teams can be grouped together on the day.

Entry fee is $10.

Early registration is advised as there will be a maximum of 40 trainees. No entries will be accepted after Tuesday 27th April or earlier if fully booked.

Enquiries: Andy Elam TrainingDay@vra.rogaïne.asn.au or 0421 089 999.

Trainers needed. If you have experience we'd like you to share some of your skills? Please contact Andy ASAP. TrainingDay@vra.rogaïne.asn.au or 0421 089 999.

A friendly reminder from the Online entries administrator

This month marks the beginning of a new rogaining season and I thought it would be a good idea to explain to members what my role is and to remind them how to obtain the information they typically seek.

Electronic mail sent to entries@vra.rogaine.asn.au is currently handled by me. Each event flyer also has my other contact details. My role encompasses three functions;

1. Assist members with their login details
2. Assist members with event related issues (eg addition of team members, payment issues, event fee issues, event category issues)
3. Assist members and the general public with general event information (questions such as what is rogaining?, how do we enter?, are there any fees?, is there good carparking?, what time should we arrive?)

Your VRA member number and password are key data and I would highly recommend that members record these details somewhere safe, in the same manner as your other account passwords.

In order for a VRA member to be able to use the password retrieval facility you must have added a valid email address onto the member profile. It is recommended to select an email address that the member plans to use for the long term. Communication from me or another event administrator to the member via electronic mail using the online entry system will be sent to the address on file, so if the address is no longer in use this will not be possible.

How to retrieve your logon credentials (if you have forgotten or misplaced them).

If you can remember your VRA member number but not your password, you can retrieve your password by following these steps

On the Online Entry home page, choose Option 4: Login (and seek assistance to logon)

On the next page, choose Option 1: I have forgotten my password

On the third page, fill in your VRA member number and your surname in the relevant boxes

You will receive an email that advises, 1. Your VRA member number, and 2. Your password

If you can remember your online entry password but not your member number, you can retrieve your membership number by following these steps

On the Online Entry home page, choose Option 4: Login (and seek assistance to logon)

On the next page, choose Option 2: I know my password but not my member number

On the third page, fill in your details

If you cannot remember both your VRA member number and your password

On the Online Entry home page, choose Option 4: Login (and seek assistance to logon)

On the second page, choose Option 2: I am a member, but have forgotten my details

You will then be prompted to fill in a form with a number of fields. The reason why we ask for this information is twofold; it provides a good opportunity to update the member's personal details (eg home address) if the member hasn't updated their profile themselves and secondly, provides some reassurance that the member has made an enquiry as opposed to a spammer (the details you provide are expected to be known only to you).

I receive this information and can take a number of actions. I can:

1. Update the member's profile and/or use the password retrieval service as if I were the member themselves
2. Send the member an email
3. Telephone the member

Members who contact entries@vra.rogaine.asn.au may be asked for further information to confirm their identity before personal details are released.

Event Administrators have access to all member profiles but cannot view login passwords (passwords appear in the form of □□□□□□). Event administrators can overwrite existing passwords with a new one but this is only considered when all other avenues to send the member their existing password have been exhausted. The VRA treats the privacy of members' personal details very seriously.

Feel free to get in touch with me if you have questions. I look forward to seeing you out on course this year.

Andrew Hunter

It has been a long break and recruiting volunteers over summer is difficult. That means our roster looks sadly full of vacant positions. In particular key positions. Here's your cans to committee at short notice. Do the job and it's all over in a month. Please contact Geoff Hudson on 0407 998 240 or Volunteer2@vra.rogaine.asn.au for March or any event. The full an up to date roster is available online
